PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

WELCOME OUR NEW OFFICE MANAGER

Please join me in welcoming Chloe Kersey to our parish office. Chloe is our new Office Manager and is happy to help in any way she can. Chloe grew up in Indiana and attended college in Hillsdale, Michigan, where she was introduced to the Catholic faith and was confirmed. As an adult convert, she is passionate about catechesis and the New Evangelization. In her free time, she loves to read, hike, and explore the beautiful Denver area. ~ Fr. Francis

Notes from Fr. Francis

Dear Faithful of St. Ignatius Parish,

As we gather in spirit and truth this blessed Sunday, there are two upcoming events to which I want to draw your collective attention and action: the forthcoming Religious Education (RE) program for our young parishioners and my forthcoming Installation Mass on September 10th at 10am. This Mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Samuel Aquila and will feature the sacred music of Gaudium Verum, a choir to which I am deeply connected. Moreover, the occasion will be enriched by the fellowship of many visiting brothers and sisters from the Congregation of Saint John - my religious family - Fr. Samuel Morehead, the Rector of the Cathedral Basilica, and Fr. Daniel Ciucci, the Pastor of Most Precious Blood Parish.

The Indispensable Role of Religious Education

The Religious Education program is not merely an institutional endeavor but a communal responsibility. While it is true that the program serves as an essential platform for imparting the doctrines and sacraments of our faith to the young, its efficacy is deeply intertwined with the spiritual culture nurtured within the family. Aristotle's wisdom that the character of a man is formed in his early years is as relevant to Christian spiritual formation as it is to human intellectual and moral development.

However, it is crucial to recognize that the faith formation of our children is not a task solely relegated to catechists and religious educators. Parents, you are the primary catechists of your children. If the faith is not lived, celebrated, and honored within the family, the lessons learned in RE risk becoming mere theoretical knowledge. The faith must be a lived experience, demonstrated through daily prayers, devotions, and acts of Christian service within the domestic church—that is, your homes.

The Evolution Towards Family Catechesis

In recognition of the indispensable role that families play in faith formation, our parish will begin introducing and tracing the way to a Family Catechesis model over the next few years.
This approach aims not merely to educate but to facilitate the handing on of faith from one generation to the next. It is an invitation for families to grow together in faith, to make the home a sanctuary where the Gospel is lived and cherished.

A Cordial Invitation: My Installation Mass

I am both honored and delighted to invite you to my Installation Mass on September 10th. This sacred event will be presided over by Archbishop Samuel Aquila. The liturgical atmosphere will be elevated by the sublime harmonies of Gaudium Verum, a choir dedicated to the sanctity and beauty of liturgical music. As a founding and board member of this choir, I can attest to the transformative power of sacred music in our worship. Furthermore, the presence of my brothers and sisters from the Congregation of Saint John will add a unique spiritual richness to the celebration. In addition, the Knights and Ladies of Peter Claver will be turning out at this Mass; their joyous and faith-filled presence will add greatly to this special day.

In conclusion, I earnestly encourage your active participation in both the RE program and the upcoming Installation Mass.
These are not mere events but spiritual milestones in our journey towards eternal life. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God the Father, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Yours in Christ,

Father Francis Therese Krautter, CSJ

Readings for September 21

Jn 1:1-18 and Rev 4:1 – 5:14

Our guiding study questions:

What does the Gospel of John reveal about the “divine family” of God and the hope that our “human families” should have for our future?

How can we center ourselves in the continuity of God’s love that flows through the Incarnation, and through each of us into one another?
