PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather this Sunday, we mark a significant moment in our liturgical journey: the celebration of the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This feast, significant in its symbolism and message, brings the liturgical year to a close and ushers us into the season of Advent, a time of hopeful anticipation and spiritual preparation.

The Solemnity of Christ the King is a profound reminder of the sovereignty of Christ over all aspects of our lives and the world. It invites us to reflect on the nature of His kingship – one that is based on service, sacrifice, and unconditional love.
In a world where power and authority are often exercised in ways contrary to the Gospel's message, this feast challenges us to consider the kind of authority Christ exercised and calls us to emulate.

As we honor Christ our King, we are reminded of His teachings about the Kingdom of God, a kingdom marked by justice, peace, and a preferential option for the poor and marginalized. It is a kingdom where the values of the Gospel overturn worldly expectations and concentrate on eternity and heaven. Saint Ambrose wrote, "Let us read this superscription. 'Jesus of Nazareth,' it says, 'The King of the Jews.' The superscription is written and placed above, not below the cross, because the government is upon his shoulders. What is this government if not his eternal power and Godhead? When asked, 'Who are you?' he replied, 'The beginning, who also speaks to you.' Let us read this superscription. 'Jesus of Nazareth,' it says, 'The King of the Jews.' The superscription is fittingly above the cross because Christ's kingdom does not belong to his human body but to his divine authority. The superscription is fittingly above the cross, because although the Lord Jesus was on the cross, he shines above the cross with the majesty of a king."

This celebration also serves as a transition to Advent, a season of waiting and preparation. Advent is not merely the anticipation of Christ's birth in Bethlehem, but also a time to prepare our hearts and minds for His eventual return. It is a period for us to renew our commitment to live in a manner worthy of His Gospel, to deepen our prayer life, and to strengthen our resolve to follow His example more closely.
St. Augustine wrote, "My brothers and sisters, believe firmly what you believe—that Christ will return. What does it matter when? Prepare yourself for his coming. Live as though He were coming today, and you will not fear His coming" (Sermon 265, 3-4).

As we step into the season of Advent, let us embrace its spirit of watchfulness and hopeful expectation. Let us use this time to reflect on our spiritual journey, to engage in acts of charity and kindness, and to prepare our hearts for the coming of our Savior. May this time of Advent be an opportunity for each of us to grow in our faith and to rekindle the joy and hope that comes from living in Christ.

As we move from celebrating Christ our King into the hopeful anticipation of Advent, let us do so with hearts full of gratitude and eyes fixed on the ultimate promise of His eternal kingdom.

In Christ our King,

Fr. Francis Therese Krautter, CSJ

3 WAYS TO PREPARE YOUR HEART AND HOME FOR ADVENT

1. Get or make an Advent Wreath

Advent wreaths help serve as a visual reminder that the Light of the World is coming!

2. Decorate a Jesse Tree

A Jesse Tree is a tree decorated with ornaments based on symbols of Old Testament events preparing for the coming of Christ.

3. Prepare your heart with an Advent devotional

Reading the Old Testament prophecies is a great way to prepare your heart. The prayer app, Hallow, also has great devotional options.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

LEARN about those living in poverty who are working to improve their communities. • ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier. • CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection. • PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

For more than 50 years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has supported organizations that combat poverty and improve the lives of people in communities across the United States. Not only do CCHD-funded organizations advocate with civic, business, and community religious leaders to improve access to affordable housing, job and educational opportunities, and rights for immigrants—they also respond quickly to urgent needs when communities experience emergencies.

An effective response to natural disasters begins with effective planning before disasters occur. In New Orleans and surrounding areas in southern Louisiana, CCHD is helping Together New Orleans develop a project called Community Lighthouse, which will equip 85 congregations and community organizations with commercial-scale solar power and backup battery storage. This effort will form a network of response centers ready to serve communities in a hurricane or other natural disaster once the solar power equipment is completely installed. By using solar power and backup batteries, the response centers can continue operating in the event of power loss—but they will also be using clean, renewable energy rather than fossil fuels that contribute to climate change and pollution.

When you support CCHD, you help local communities across the country innovate and work together to solve their own unique challenges. Twenty-five percent of your contribution stays in your diocese to support the organizations addressing your community's needs for housing, jobs, and educational opportunities—and for keeping the lights on during a storm.

To learn more about the collection for the CCHD and the way CCHD upholds the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church, visit www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.
