Pastor's Column

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

The Easter season continues as we celebrate the Third Sunday of Easter. Today's Gospel presents the disciples on the road to Emmaus, who encounter Jesus but fail to recognize him until he breaks bread with them. "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way?" they ask. Their journey from confusion to clarity mirrors our own spiritual lives.

We often miss Christ's presence in our daily routines. Like those disciples, we can be preoccupied with our troubles and disappointments. Yet Jesus walks beside us, revealing himself in Scripture, in the Eucharist, and in our community. When the disciples finally recognize Jesus, they immediately return to Jerusalem to share the good news. Their encounter transforms them from discouraged travelers into eager witnesses.

As Saint Augustine taught, "Christ is not simply in heaven and absent from the earth." He remains actively present in his Church through the Holy Spirit. This truth is especially important as we approach May 7th, when the College of Cardinals will gather in conclave to elect a new pope.

The conclave is not merely an administrative process but a sacred act guided by the Holy Spirit. Through every papacy and transition, Christ remains the true head of the Church. As Saint Cyprian of Carthage wrote, "The Church is the people united to its priest, the flock adhering to its shepherd." This continuity assures us that the Church will continue its mission regardless of who serves as pope.

During this significant moment in Church history, I encourage us all to pray for the Cardinals' discernment. May they be open to the Holy Spirit's guidance as they select the next Successor of Peter. Let us also pray for the future pope, that he will lead with wisdom and faithfulness.

This moment reminds us that our faith does not depend on any individual leader but on Christ himself. The same Jesus who walked with those disciples to Emmaus continues to walk with his Church through every age and transition. His promise remains certain: "I am with you always, until the end of the age." As we continue our Easter journey, let us recognize Christ in our midst—in Word, in Sacrament, and in one another. May our hearts burn within us as we encounter the Risen Lord who never abandons his people.

Blessings,
Fr. Francis Therese Krautter

May, the Month of Mary

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Throughout the month, the Church offers various devotions to Mother Mary. Consider praying the Crown of Twelve Stars Prayer (Rev. 12) before Mass, during Adoration, or at home.

The Crown of Twelve Stars Prayer

+ In the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit +
Let us praise and thank the Most Holy Trinity, for having shown to us the Virgin Mary clothed with the sun, with the moon beneath her feet, and with a mysterious crown of twelve stars under her head. For ever and ever. Amen.

(In honor of God the Father)

Let us praise and bless the divine Father for having chosen her as his daughter. Amen. Recite the "Our Father..."

Praised be the divine Father for having predestined her to be the mother of the divine Son. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..."

Praised be the divine Father for having preserved her from all sin in her conception. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..."

Praised be the divine Father for having adorned her with the highest gifts in her nativity. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..."

Praised be the divine Father for having given her Saint Joseph as a most pure spouse and companion. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..." and then the "Glory be..."

(In honor of God the Son)

Let us praise and bless the divine Son for having chosen her as his mother. Amen. Recite the "Our Father..."

Praised be the divine Son for having become incarnate in her womb, and for having remained there nine months. Amen.

Recite the "Hail Mary..."

Praised be the divine Son for having been born and for having given her milk whereby he would be nourished. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..."

Praised be the divine Son for having been pleased in his childhood to be educated by her. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..." and then the "Glory be..."

Praised be the divine Son for having revealed to her the mysteries of the redemption of the world.

(In honor of God the Holy Spirit)

Let us praise and bless the Holy Spirit for having chosen her as his spouse. Amen. Recite the "Our Father..."

Praised be the Holy Spirit for having revealed, first to Mary, his name of Holy Spirit. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..."

Praised be the Holy Spirit through whose action she was at once Virgin and Mother. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..."

Praised be the Holy Spirit through whose power she became the living temple of the Most Holy Trinity. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..."

Praised be the Holy Spirit by whom she was exalted in heaven above all creatures. Amen. Recite the "Hail Mary..." and then the "Glory be..."

For the holy Church of God, for the unity of Christians and for the peace and salvation of the whole world, let us pray together:

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus, O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, that we may be worthy of the promises of Christ.

+ Amen +

Please pray for...
